

Ann Chance - Petticoat Pilot

I gained my pilot's licence at Biggin Hill at the tender age of 56. I have always been fascinated with flight so what better way to find out than to be in control of a small aircraft alone. It was a Grumman Cheetah. Finally at the age of 76 I decided it was time to stop flying for three reasons – money, getting older, and wishing to live long enough to see my grandchildren!
